Democratic Editors Meet.

In accordance with a call issued by C. C. Mitchim, 13th District Vice-President of the Executive Committee, of the State Democratic Committee, a majority of the Democratic editors of the 13th Congressional District met at Bismarck Saturday, April 16th.
The meeting was called to order in the parlor of the Bismarck Hotel by editor Mitchim, of the De Soto Press, and permanent organization was effected by electing Mr. Mitchim president, and C.
R. Pratt, of the Lead Belt News, Flat River, Secretary.

Hon. E. W. Stephens, of Columbia, who was expected to deliver an address, was unable to attend and sent his regrets in a letter which was read to the association.

A resolution was adopted pledging the support of the Democratic press of the District to the Executive Committee and the State Committee in their work in behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Each of the editors present made brief talks upon the situation and the outlook in their respective counties and expressed the conviction that with harmonious action Democratic success throughout the District was assured. As in the Kansas City meeting last January, the key-note was "harmony."

Those present and participating in the meeting were:
C. C. Mitchim, De Soto Press;
R. W. McMullen, Hillsboro Democrat;
T. D. Fisher, Farmington Times;
I. L. Page, Bonne Terre Star;
H. L. Marbury, Festus News;
A. H. Zoellner, Perryville Sun;
E. L. Purcell, Fredericktown
Democrat News;
Geo. S. Bisplinghoff, Bismarck
Gazette;
G. W. Stivers, Wayne County
Journal;
D. B. Hill, Marble Hill Press;
R. L. Daniels, Reynolds County
Outlook;
C. R. Pratt, Lead Belt News.

Future meetings will be held at the call of the president.

Hayti Hotels.

(From the Dunklin Democrat.)

B. F. ALLEN, proprietor of the City Hotel, at Hayti, objected, in last week's Hayti Argus, to a little paragraph that appeared in the Dunklin Democrat of April 15th, as follows:

"If you should want to punish some enemy, without killing him —just wanted to inflict slow punishment—put him off at Hayti, at midnight, and let him hunt for a place to sleep. If he finds a place so much the better for you, and the worse for him. And yet, Hayti would be the county seat of Pemiscot county."

Mr. Allen calls this an ill-bred, unjust and ungentlemanly attack.
Let's see: His hotel was not mentioned, nor his name; and as a matter of fact, the writer was never in Mr. Allen's house, and does not even know him. However, he did land at Hayti on a dark midnight; no lamps were burning to show him where to go; no hotel porters were there to give the needed information; the hack was not running because somebody had the measles (he was informed) and he had to stay in the depot six hours or "rustle" for a bed. He found one, but not up town, and—but let's forget it.
What's the use of bringing up unpleasant memories?

CENTRALIA Courier: "This week another Pike county colony consisting of twenty-one families, left Missouri for Canada. Not that they have anything against Missouri, but simply because Canada offers them better conditions than the United States.
Uncle Sam permits trusts and corporations, working through and behind a protective tariff, to plunder his subjects; Canada does not. You can buy a McCormick reaper for $22 less in Canada than you can in the United States. The plain English of this is that Uncle Sam gives the millionaire owners of the reaper trust permission to put their hand into the pocket of the farmer and steal $22 of his money. We can buy the Canadian linotype for $1200 less money than the Mergenthaler trust will sell their machine for; we can also buy news print paper for $20 per ton less in Canada than in the United States—the difference is the highwaymen's booty which Uncle Sam extracts from the pockets of the printer and forks over to the millionaires of the east. Is it any wonder that thousands of people are leaving the United States for Canada every day in the year?"

SPEAKING of the comet—and we're all thinking and talking about it these days—the St. Louis Star philosophically observes: "It is awful to be so upset. Only a few days ago some astronomer told us the tail of Halley's comet was much shorter than had been expected, apparently only 2,000-000 miles long instead of 12,000,000, and therefore it probably would not reach the earth at all on that fateful eighteenth of May next.
Now comes the observer at the Lowell Observatory in Arizona, where the facilities for observation are excellent, and declares that the tail is not only 22,000,000 miles in length, but is bifurcated.
It is long enough to extend from the comet to the earth on that day of transit, and an equal distance beyond. We shall be right in the center of it, perhaps exactly at the point of bifurcation. But we shall not be bified, as some people imagine, nor even cyanogen-gassed out of existence, we are promised, though the spectrum shows bright bands indicating the presence of that deadly gas in large quantities.
We shall probably have other astronomical knowledge, of the usual conflicting nature, offered us in abundance before that day of transit through the bifurcated caudle, but the only thing to do is not to worry, and to go ahead replanting the crops—if they need it."
